THE NATIONAL HOME SHOW OFFICIAL E-NEWSLETTER

Happy Anniversary Everyone!

Can you believe the Montréal National Home Show is already 30 years old? Since its creation in 1979, the Show has continued to evolve and has witnessed many spectacular changes. Today, with its wealth of experience, the Show offers the best there is and exhibitors surpass themselves to make sure visitors have access to a quality show. RE/MAX and the Laurentian Bank already renewed their alliance and the majority of the Show's loyal partners have already finalized their agreements! Space is quickly filling up and fantastic features are currently in the works. In its Golden Age, the Show is the annual reference and remains a must see in renovation, construction, decoration and landscaping for thousands of visitors!

A Wind of Change

Another year, another show, new owners but the same energetic team: Hélène Côté, Nathalie Paquette, Emmanuelle Bonneau and Ian Lapierre as well as all the Expo Media support staff are ready and devoted to making this 30th edition a huge success. If you haven't had the chance to read the Press release about the change in ownership to Marketplace Events, announced in June 2008, click here.

Join Us!

There are still excellent spaces available to exhibit your product or service so contact your representative to reserve one today! If you've already reserved your exhibit space, why not consider enlarging your space to create an even greater impact upon the 160,000 people visiting the Show!

You can stand out at the show by maximizing your presence. Take a look at our Opportunities Guide for details on our many marketing opportunities available to you. Participate differently to the Show by making yourself easily accessible to potential clients. Whether via the Show's Website, e-blast, the Show's official guide or plan, you can optimize your presence even if you are not an exhibitor at the show.

Manon LeBlanc

Manon LeBlanc has been living a true love story with the Show and its public. It is with great pride that she has agreed to be spoken person for a 3rd consecutive year. There is no doubt that her involvement in the National Home Show continues to increase the Show's visibility to the public. Her involvement does not stop there. She'll be leading great workshops and conferences at the RE/MAX Theatre stage in addition to presenting a feature signed Manon LeBlanc which always attracts hoards of admirers!
